a. Reported that the men he had sent [redacted] to set up a briefing room for General Eisenhower did not get expected cooperation from [redacted]. Although Mr. Amory is prepared to set up a complete situation room, the Director indicated that this would not be in order but that a simple room in which briefings could take place would meet General Eisenhower's requirements. The Director said that he would talk to [redacted] on the phone after the meeting. (NOTE: This call was completed.)
